Activity 1

Hello everybody! We will be learning about Rubys Worry by Tom Percival this week in Saint Christopher.

Have a go at making a prediction. This is when you think about what a story could be about. I predict that the story might be about.... Get your helper to have a go at prediction. If you know the story already you can tell your adult what you remember.

Look at the front cover of this story book.

What do you think this story might be about?

Can you point to the title of this story?

Can you read the title with your adult?

What is a worry? What do you think Rubys worry might be?

Next please listen to this story using the YouTube link below.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LWSOQ5oCUNE>

Were your story predictions, right?

What did you like about this story?

Activity 2

How do you think Ruby is feeling in these pictures?

What emotion is she showing? Is she sad? or angry? or frightened? or happy?

How do you know?

Finish these sentences. Remember to use your Fred fingers to write the sounds that you hear. (on the next page)

Think about your sentence before you write it.

I think this because _____

Activity 3

Let's listen to a song about being happy

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y6Sxv-sUYtM>

Make up your own dance to this song. Ask your parent to film it and send the video to school!

Activity 4

At the start of the story Ruby is described as being, "perfectly happy " Think about when you are happy. Think about what makes the people in your family happy.

Talk to your family. Ask your family what makes them especially happy.

Finish these sentences. Remember to use your Fred fingers to write the sounds that you hear.

Think about your sentence before you write it.

I am happy when ____

Mummy/ Daddy is happy when _____

You can ask any other member of your family

Activity 4

Ask your adult for a mirror. Look closely at your face. What do you see? Talk to your adult about your face. Use your describing words (adjectives) Here are some examples

Smooth, soft, hard, wet, smiley, big, small,

Ask your adult to use their adjectives to describe their own face.

Now have a go at drawing your own self portrait. Try to include all your features such as hair, eyebrows, ears, nose, nostrils, eyelashes, teeth, lips, etc

Activity 5

CONNECT THE DOTS!

Can you connect the dots to complete Ruby's spotty dress?

You had to connect 15 dots. Have a go at writing the numerals 0 to 15.

Activity 6

How do you think Ruby is feeling in this picture?

How do you know ?

We are now going to listen to a story about someone who is feeling worried.

Activity 15

For R.E this week we will be learning about the creation of the world! Lets watch this beautiful story about creation.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bLHB_hNk42g

Talk to your adult.

How did the story make you feel?

Reception Home Learning Booklet

Christians believe that God created the world.

Why do you think God said it was very good when he made humans?

What was the world like when it was first made?

Reception Home Learning Booklet

Can you draw a picture of the world God created ?

Finally, remember to log on to Purple Mash. Click on the Mini Mash image

You can also find activities in Mathletics.

Have a lovely week. We will call you this week and if you find any of your work tricky you will be able to talk to one of your teachers.
